4. Municipal Grants Program Committee Recommendation

Frederic Desnoyers explains that the Prescott et Russell Recreational Trail, which had submitted a municipal grant application to the committee, decided to withdraw its request this morning. One of their partners withdrew, leaving the City as the sole contributor.

Following questions, Frédéric Desnoyers confirmed that organizations applying for municipal grants must have other financial sources for their event; and that the City cannot represent more than 50% of their total funding. In calculating the amount of the financial grant awarded to an organization, the committee ensures that the policy is respected; and takes into account this 50% of total funding and also the worth of the City's in-kind contributions.
