Everyone online is seeing what you guys are doing and are not happy with the ridiculous tax hike you are proposing. Everything is already going up as it is and here you are giving people a tax hike of almost 10%. You guys have salaries that are in the 100k - 150k plus a year to sit on your ass'. I'm assuming you guys don't struggle in life to make ends meet. How about you cut those massive salaries and put that money back into the city of clarence rockland and actually do something with it.
